Counting On Your Support

This celebration event brings together friends, colleagues and commercial real estate-related professionals who share a common goal of supporting at-risk youth in our community. We are counting on your support and hope you will be a sponsor this year. With your help, Building Block is able to support programs that directly impact the lives of Orange County youth including:

Boys Hope Girls Hope

boyshopegirlshope.org

Founded in 1977, Boys Hope Girls Hope is a nonprofit children's services agency dedicated to helping children-in-need realize their full potential through education. The organization provides "arms-around" care, safe environments, first-class education, academic, financial and spiritual support through college with the goal of empowering these young people to complete a college education and put their education to work for the benefit of their families and communities.

HomeAid Orange County

homeaid.org

HomeAid is a leading national nonprofit provider of housing and resources for people experiencing homelessness, operating through a network of 19 chapters in 13 states.

The Joyful Child Foundation

thejoyfulchild.org

Formed in 2002, The Joyful Child is a not-for-profit dedicated to preventing crimes against children through programs that educate, empower, and unite families and communities. The organization was initially organized after the abduction, molestation and murder of five-year old Samantha Runnion.

Taller San Jose

Tallersanjose.org

Taller San Jose (St. Joseph's Workshop) is a place where undereducated, unskilled and unemployed young adults who have taken the wrong path can find hope. The Sisters of St. Joseph of Orange opened Taller San Jose in 1995 in response to the high rate of crime and gang violence prevalent in the City of Santa Ana.

Counting On Your Support

Project Access

project-access.org

Project Access' mission is to assist low-income residents of affordable housing developments to increase their self-sufficiency through onsite access to education, health, and social services.

Kidworks

Kidworksonline.org

Since 1994, KIDWORKS has developed and operated community centers in Santa Ana neighborhoods that provide family support services and engage neighborhood residents in community development activities.

Orangewood Children's Foundation

orangewoodfoundation.org

A consistent emphasis on education is the best path to breaking the cycle of child abuse and poverty. This is why Orangewood Children's Foundation is committed to equipping youth from the foster care system to be mentally and academically prepared for higher education.

EverFree

everfree.org

Equipping survivors with everything they need to live a life of freedom forever. Through an evidence based approach, survivors receive everything from emergency shelter to economic empowerment. Everfree is building a network of corporations, organizations, community partners, leaders and survivors working together to advocate for policy change, drive innovation, and end cycles of injustice.
